And

alive!

Every year during turtle nesting season, hundreds of turtles are killed trying to cross the roads right here in Cape May County. Pictured above is a diamondback terrapin killed on a Turtle Run route, a photo of some of the bikers/bikes that came out for last year's Run, and a box turtle like the ones also saved on the route. We need your help to continue to educate people about these and other county turtles crossing the roads: before the turtles are gone! Like last year, this year we plan to let the youngest riders, and any other riders who wish to, walk our official 25-lb. Turtle Mascot, Big Black Bart at the 3rd Annual Turtlesinger Tortoise Trudge-a-Thon at our final destination, once again at Obadiah's in Marmora, where there's a nice stretch of lawn for Bart to stroll for the turtle cause.

This year, we thank you if you have donated previously to this cause and ask if you will help us out once again. ANY DONATION IN ANY FORM IS MOST APPRECIATED! Don't forget that you can also help by sponsoring Big Black Bart in the Trudge-a-Thon for $ per foot that he walks in one hour! All Trudge-a-Thon sponsors are invited to meet Bart at the starting point and help walk him at the final destination (all Turtle Run riders who wish to get to walk Bart for free).

All proceeds will go to fund more turtle awareness through Turtlesinger, Inc., the Turtle Run host and a federal 501(c)3 public charity. In 2008, Turtlesinger, Inc. presented its award winning, public education programs about turtles to 13,354 children and families in Cape May County alone. Turtlesinger, Inc. serves the public in schools, libraries, nursing homes, preschools, camps, nature centers, churches, and more, and educates people all over the state of New Jersey (and beyond) about turtles. Motorcycle riders as well as motorists in cars (especially since this is a Rain Or Shine event) are encouraged to help turtles cross the roads during the run. For pictures and more information about this event, visit www.turtlesinger.com or call (609) 553-5353!
